RECOMMENDED ORDER AND DECISION

On July 17, 2007, Anthony Sanchez, pro se, filed his Complaint with the Illinois Human Rights Commission ("Commission"). The Complaint alleges that Respondent, Tiger Direct, Inc., discriminated against Complainant on the basis of his national origin, sexually harassed him and retaliated against him when he was discharged.

This matter comes to be heard on Respondent's Motion to Dismiss and for Attorney's Fees filed on August 28, 2007. A briefing schedule was set as per the September 24, 2007, order. Complainant filed a written response on October 18, 2007, and Respondent filed its reply on October 31, 2007. The matter is ready for decision.

The Illinois Department of Human Rights ("Department") is an additional statutory agency that has issued state actions in this matter. The Department is therefore named herein as an additional party of record.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The following facts were derived from uncontested sections of the pleadings. The findings did not require, and were not the result of, credibility determinations.

1. On February 1, 2006, Complainant filed a Charge of Discrimination with the Department alleging Respondent discriminated against him on the basis of his national origin, sexually harassed him and retaliated against him when he was discharged from his employment.

- Complainant, "...submitted a written request to withdraw his charge pursuant to the Department's Rules and Regulations..." On November 3, 2006, the Department entered an Order of Closure. As of that date the matter was "closed."
- Complainant, on his own behalf, filed a Complaint with the Commission on July 17, attaching his previously filed and closed charge of discrimination.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 1. The Commission lacks jurisdiction over this Complaint, because it was not filed pursuant to section 5/7A-102(G) of the Act.
  - 2. Respondent's motion to dismiss should be granted.

DISCUSSION

Pro Se Litigant

There is some sympathy with the pro se litigant, as the practice of law requires skills that sometimes test the abilities of licensed attorneys. However, "Justice requires that the parties live with litigation decisions they have made, either through their attorney or on a pro se basis."

Fitzgerald and Fischer Imaging Corp., IHRC, ALS No. 10142, May 29, 1998.

The fact that Complainant is a pro se litigant has no influence on this decision, as "...a pro se litigant is held to the standard of an attorney." Mininni and Inter-Track Partners, IHRC, ALS No. 7961, December 10, 1996 quoting, First Illinois Bank and Trust v. Galuska, 155 III.

App. 3d 86, 627 N.E. 2d 325 (1st Dist. 1993).

Jurisdiction

The Commission only has jurisdiction with a case when: 1) the Department files a Complaint within the statutory investigation period after the charge was filed or within an extension of that period as agreed to in writing by all the parties; or 2) when the aggrieved party files the Complaint during the statutory window after the expiration of the investigation period, or within an extension of that period as agreed to in writing by all the parties, and the Department has not issued a report and determination. 775 ILCS 7A-102(G).

Complainant filed his charge with the Department on February 1, 2006. He then requested to withdraw it, and as a result his case was closed by the Department on November 3, 2006. On July 17, 2007, Complainant filed his Complaint with the Commission, attaching the same charge of discrimination previously filed and subsequently ordered closed. Complainant could not comply with 775 ILCS 7A-102(G), as his case did not exist at the Department.

Therefore, the Commission does not have subject matter jurisdiction over this matter.

Attorney's fees

Pro se Complainant stood before a two tier labyrinth when he began his search for a remedy to his discrimination case. Unknown to him, and some attorneys, his path to be made whole was replete with intricate state and federal laws and codes, which were made up of limitation periods, options, agencies and litigation forums. Any turn could have negative consequences or advance his case. Advice was plentiful, but decisions made were his choice alone. Pro se Complainant decided to withdraw his charge with the Department which was formalized on November 3, 2006. His case ended that day. The substance of his discrimination case could not be heard by the Commission as the case no longer existed.

Respondent's request for attorney's fees is denied as it was not Complainants intent to file an untimely Complaint.

RECOMMENDATION

Based on the foregoing, it is recommended that Respondent's Motion to Dismiss be granted, and its request for attorney's fees be denied.
